Attention: Daniel and Shirley

Thank you so much for the surprise of not recalculating your invoice to me.
It was not necessary, but very much appreciated.

I have received so many compliments on the work that you did on my house.
It is very unusual that you find a business like yours in today's marketplace.
I have never dealt with any business that is run with more integrity yet delivers a great product, which shows such pride in workmanship.

It has always a pleasure to work with you in the past and continues today.
Thank you.

I recommend you to everyone!!!

Sincerely,

Charlotte M. Guilbeau
